Wheat

- US wheat futures are higher on steady US export demand and concerns over production sizes for Black Sea and Canadian Prairies. Net drying is expected for much of the Canadian Prairies for the first week of the outlook. The concern for Canada focuses on the central and southern Saskatchewan areas, and southern Alberta.
- Paris December wheat was up unchanged at 182.75.
- FranceAgriMer reported the French wheat harvest at 90% as of July 27, up from 71% a week earlier. 56% of crop was rated good or excellent versus 75% year earlier.

FI makes no guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of any of the information or recommendations furnished to Customer. Customer understands that FI, its managers, employees and/or affiliates may have a position in commodity futures, options or other derivatives which may not be consistent with the recommendations furnished by FI to Customer.

The risk of trading futures and options and other derivatives involves a substantial risk of loss and is not suitable for all persons. In purchasing an option, the risk is limited to the prmium paid, and all commissions and fees involved with the trade. When an option is shorted or written, the writer of the option has unlimited risk with respect to the option written. The use of options strategies such as a straddles and strangles involve multiple option positions and may substantially increase the amount of commissions and fees paid to execute the strategy. Option prices do not necessarily move in tandem with cash or futures prices. Each person must consider whether a particular trade, combination of trades or strategy is suitable for that person's financial means and objectives.

This material may include discussions of seasonal patterns, however, futures prices have already factored in the seasonal aspects of supply and demand, and seasonal patterns are no indication of future market trends. Finally, past performance is not indicative of future results.
