Updated 8/12/21

September corn is seen in a $5.40-$6.00 range.

December corn is seen in a $4.75-$6.00 range

Soybeans

- Soybeans ended sharply higher in part to higher outside related markets and 147 point jump in September soybean oil. USDA 24-hour sales for China and unknown also underpinned soybeans. Some traders fear Canadian canola oil imports into the US will shrink after USDA cut the Canadian canola crop to 16 million tons from 20.2 million forecast in July. We think imports will occur given the spread between Canadian canola and US soybean oil. Note StatsCan will update Canada canola production at the end of this month.
- Funds bought 10,000 soybeans, 1,000 meal and 6,000 soybean oil.
- Safras estimated Brazil 2022 soybean imports at a large 90 million tons, up from their 2021 estimate of 86 million tons, which was left unchanged. Crush was expected to expand to 48.5 million tons in 2022 from 46.7 million for 2021.
- Malaysia palm oil futures hit a fresh contract high.
- China cash crush margins were last positive 87 cents on our analysis (94 previous) versus 80 cents late last week and 136 cents around a year ago.

 - Export sales of 126,000 metric tons of soybeans for delivery to China during the 2021/2022 marketing year.

Wheat

- US wheat ended higher in most US contracts (back month KC contracts lower) on EU quality concerns (Paris futures sharply higher) and follow through buying from the USDA report. Funds bought an estimated net 6,000 Chicago wheat contracts. Next week it will be important to keep an eye on Black Sea and EU wheat production estimates. Note Statistics Canada will update their wheat and other commodity production estimates on August 30.
- US Chicago, KC and MN wheat, basis December and other selected months, hit fresh contract highs.
- We revised up our price range for nearby Chicago wheat by 25 cents (high only) to $8.00/bu, for the next 15 days. Back month wheat continues to have a healthy carry over September, and to remain that way into FND at the end of this month.
- There were no major export developments reported since Friday morning, other than Turkey's import tender announcement for 270,000 tons of barley (details in corn section).
